National Forest Camp Stamps—
Use Them and Pocket the Savings!

A Brand-New Program

The USDA Forest Service Camp Stamp program will provide these benefits to you:

- ★ Savings—15-percent reduction in the fee charged for use of National Forest Campgrounds.
- ★ Convenience—Less need for you to make change or take cash or a checkbook to the National Forest. Stamps do not expire and are good until used.
- ★ Easy gift-giving—Camp Stamps make a welcome gift to friends and relatives who enjoy camping.
- ★ Greater Government efficiency—This program will significantly reduce Forest Service administration and accounting costs for handling fee envelopes, counting money, and processing cash and checks at Forest Service field offices and banks. All taxpayers will benefit from this.

Here's How It Works

Anytime before you visit the National Forest campground, purchase Camp Stamps at any Forest Service office or at selected retail outlets. You will pay only 85 percent of the stamps' face value. Remember—to get this 15-percent savings you must buy Camp Stamps, which are available only at selected outlets, not at the National Forest campground. Upon arriving at the National Forest campground, select your campsite, return to the self-service fee station, and follow the posted instructions for using your Camp Stamps to pay your fee.

Camp Stamps can be used along with Golden Age and Golden Access Passports. When paying the campsite fee, a Passport holder need place only half the otherwise required number of Camp Stamps on the back of the fee envelope. The Passport user must have in possession a valid Passport at all times.

Things To Remember About Camp Stamps

- ★ Camp Stamps can be used only at National Forest campgrounds.
- ★ The prior purchase of Camp Stamps does not guarantee the availability of a campsite. Most National Forest campgrounds are still first-come, first-served.
- ★ If you don't buy Camp Stamps before you visit a National Forest campground, you may still pay your camping fee with cash or check, at the entrance fee station, but you will have to pay the full fee. The only way to get the 15-percent discount is through the advance purchase of Camp Stamps.

Welcome to the National Forest campgrounds. We hope you enjoy your stay.

Where To Buy Camp Stamps

Camp Stamps may be purchased at selected retail outlets, all Regional and National Forest headquarters, and at most Ranger District headquarters and other local Forest Service offices.

The following list shows Regional and National Forest headquarters. National Forest names are in the left-hand column and the headquarters town and its ZIP code are on the right.
